

Culture Co-ordinator

We are looking for a competent administration to build on our culture initiatives within the nation. In this role, the successful candidate will work closely with the Health Manager and Elders to research, plan and administer future learning of the culture at WMFN. Part of this role will be to create learning opportunities for Elders to teach the community our culture and the history of the nation. In addition, the Coordinator will archive documents into a culture library, restore recordings of event from the past, create traditional learnings in language, music, food, the land and its people.

The Successful Candidate

You will be a member within the community with strong ties to your neighbours, Chief and Council, Staff and members. You have knowledge of cultural practices and are able to communicate effectively, keeping calm in potentially stressful situations.

Your toolkit will bring:

- A combination of education and experience will be considered.
- Effective communication skills, including public speaking and documenting concise procedures.
- Experience working with volunteers and delegating duties.
- Knowledge of first nations culture, traditional healing methods, cooking, etc.
- Must have a clean drivers' abstract, driver's licence, and their own vehicle.
- Must have clean vulnerable sector criminal record.

What We Offer

A flexible work life, 70 hours every 2 weeks, including possible evening and weekend hours, a competitive salary with learning opportunities to lead this very important program for West Moberly First Nations.

How to Apply

Interested candidates can email their resume and a cover letter outlining previous related experience, Open until filled

Please send application to: jobs@westmo.org.